SOCIAL MATTERS.

Receptions of Note Yesterday - Personal Mention.

Mr. Justice and Mrs. Field were at home to many of their friends who called on them yesterday afternoon at their Capitol Hill home. Justice Field and Mrs. Field were assisted in greeting the callers by Mrs. and the Misses Condit Smith. In the library attentive men served ices, strawberries, cake, tea and punch. Mrs. Morton, Mrs. Berdan, Mrs. J. P. Jones, Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Berry, Mr. A. G. Heaton, Mr. Bosch, Mrs. Hurtado and Miss Evarts, Justice and Mrs. Fields and Mrs. Condit-Smith and daughters, with several friends from Cal-ifornia, will sail from Philadelphia for Ant-werp on June 4. The party will be twelve or fourteen days at sea. They expect to be absent until October.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dalzell and Miss Dalzell entertained a large company of Pennsylvanians at their home last evening. The house was decked with wild flowers and roses, music filled all the rooms with melody and a supper of summer dainties was served throughout the

The Phelps' garden was opened yesterday and the Marine Band played a program of music there to the delight of those who drove in that direction. Mrs. J. P. Jones will this week hold her last formal Thursday at home for the season. Mrs. Payne has returned from a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Whitney, in New York. Ex-Secretary and Mrs. Whitney and Col Oliver Payne will sail for Europe in a short time. Mrs. J. N. Patterson, who spent her first season in the capital this year and has made so many friends here, has left town for her home in Concord, N.H., where she will spend the summer.

There was an enthusiastic attendance in the residence of Mrs. Coolidge yesterday at 2:30 to hear Dr. Clara Bliss Hinds give her first of a series of four practical talks to mothers and those interested in the care of young children. The mothers present asked questions of the speaker and the occasion was full of interest for all concerned. Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Scho-field, Miss E. B. Johnson, Mrs. M. D. Lincoln, Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. McCook, Mrs. West and Mrs. Swope were some of those present. The next subject will be upon bathing and emergencies and will be given on Monday the 19th instant at 2:30 o'clock.

The lady managers of the Washington Foundling Hospital have issued beautifully illuminated cards of invitation for a laurel tea to be given at the hospital, No. 1715 15th street, on Wednesday, May 21, from 4 to 7 o'clock. The invitation cards are the handiwork of the Misses Heaven.

The summer season was brilliantly opened at Laurel last Friday night by a most enjoyable hop given at the Academy of Music by the young ladies. Mrs. Gambrill, Mrs. Lowther and Mrs. Duvall were the chaperones, and over a hundred guests assembled and danced enthusiastically until a late hour.

Mrs. Parker of New York, the mother of Montgomery Parker, who was well known in Washington society, is visiting Mrs. Isaac Winston at 1325 Corcoran street. The wife and daughter of ex-Senator Hill of Colorado are visiting Gen, and Mrs. William Henry Browne of K street. Mrs. Hill has been appointed vice regent for her state by the regent of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Associa-

AMUSEMENTS.

Albaugh's. -- "Mynheer Jan," by the authors of "Erminie," was presented by the Carleton Opera Company last night for the first time in Washington, and for a first performance was quite successful. The scene is laid in Holland, date 1550, and, while the plot or humor is not very largely developed, the music is of that strictly obeyed. tuneful, melodious kind which is strongly The Title to a Square of Ground Involved. attractive to any audience. Through horus, and encores were as plenty as roses in Karl easily led the score and they were aplauded to the echo. Mr. Bigelow's Hans was all that could be made of it and Miss Vincent's Camilla was pretty, for Miss Vincent is a pretty voman. Not less in praise may be said of the others in the cast, and "Mynheer Jan" will be an attractive opera when it is hurried up somewhat and crystalized, so to speak. There was large audience in attendance. Again tonight. NATIONAL.—Ed Harrigan's "Squatter Sov-ereignty" was the bill at the National last night, and it was a wild, hilarious Hibernian bill, which age does not whisker nor custom chestnutize. In the first act Felix McIntyre's pig escaped over the footlights and jumped nto the orchestra, creating a wild stampede and losing the pig. The music of the play is its strong point, barring several spectacular Irish effects, when the entire stage is a general melee, and the good old Irish tunes that are now the soul and sentiment of hand organs all over the land are as conducive to applause as they were when they were first sung. It is a play to have boisterous fun with, but not to criticize, and at that it goes. Again tonight.

HARRIS' BIJOU.—Aldridge and Rich's elabrate production of "The Wages of Sin" was e attraction at this house last night, and though it was a return engagement it nevertheless pleased the large audience present. The play is a strong melodrama and the company that presented it an exceptionally good one. Again tonight, KERNAN's. - The Lester & Williams combination presented at Kernan's this week is one of the strongest on the road. This is a return engagement, yet the program has undergone many changes since its last appearance here. The performance opened with a meritorious burlesque entitled "Me and Jack." Then followed the specialties. Lester and Williams are always good; Harrigan balanced everything; Gailagher and West put all in a good humor; Lew Carroll was a good Dutchman; Jutan and Brown, aerialists, gave an exciting act and Miss Reta Gough displayed a good voice in some beautiful ballads. Thursday night the management announces a meeting with soft gloves between Chas. Smith, the colored heavy weight, and Chas. Brown, champion of the District. VENETIAN TROUBADOURS. — The Venetian Troubadours began their second week's engagement at the Bull Run Panorama building ast night and as usual gave a most pleasing entertainment. A pleasanter two hours cannot be spent than with a congenial party at these concerts, looking over the historical landscape and the battle and listening to the delightful music which so much enhances the picture.

WHY THE CASE WAS DISMISSED. Civil Rights in a Dairy Lunch Room.

The case of Messrs. Otto Wehner and Martin McDermott, charged with violating a civil the case of Lafayette Williams against Marian rights act of the legislative assembly, as here- Williams. Mr. A. B. Williams filed the bill, tofore mentioned in THE STAR, was called in stating they were married November 26, 1874, the Police Court this morning, and Mr. C. Maurice Smith, for the defendants, plead not guilty. The detendants keep a dairy lunch room on F street near the corner of 10th street, and it is alleged that they refused to sell a named James E. Churchman.

The prosecuting witness testified that Sunday night, April 27, he went in the defendant's place and asked for a mug of milk and a piece of pie, which the clerk refused to sell him because of his color.

The clerk was called as a witness and admitted that he refused the complaining witness, as the latter stated, but that it was April 13 instead of April 27. Mr. Wehner testified that after they procured their license they gave instructions to the clerks that they would have to sell to col-The court was not satisfied from the proof that the transaction occurred April 27 and not on the 13th, when the defendants had no license, and dismissed the case.

Fined for Contempt of Court.

In a case tried in the Police Court today an attachment was issued for William Brown, a witness who had failed to respond, and the policeman soon brought him into court. He gave as his excuse for not getting to court earlier that he was at work and his employer would not let him off. "How much do you get a week?" in-quired the court. "Nine dollars," was his re-"I am going to show you," said the

In 1845 Stepney Forrest deeded the ground to the trustees of the Union Beneficial Association (a colored organization) for use as a grave yard, the deed containing a clause that the conveyance was for the purposes of a burial ground only, and when it ceased to be used as such it should revert to the heirs of Forrest. The defendants claim under the society, which has died out, and the ground having been condemned and further interments prohibited it has become quite valuable. The heirs now sue for possession by Messra. F. H. Mackey and H. O. Claughton, and the defendants are represented by Messrs.

Reported for THE EVENING STAR. A WASHINGTONIAN KILLED. - The early train from Washington this morning brought to this city the mangled remains of a white man, supposed to be "Bud" Wells of Washington, found on the track near the brick yards. He had evidently been run over and killed during the night. The remains were taken in charge by Undertaker Wheatley. Bud Wells was here yesterday, and it is supposed he was walking on his way to his home in Washington when he was struck by the train.
